

Latin Name:	Festuca californica
Common Name:	California fescue
Type:	Perennial
Size:	Medium
California Native:	Yes
Description:	California native plant; tolerates summer drought and various soil types, and is long lived; has graceful, gray-green leaves and airy flowers that mature to a golden yellow color.
Pruning Needs:	remove old flower stalks in fall for tidy appearance
Sun Exposure:	Part Shade
Water Needs:	Very Low Low
Color(s):	None
Bloom Season(s):	Spring
Wildlife Value:	None