The Colusa County Master Gardener Volunteer Program is a partnership among the University of California, USDA, Colusa County and the Colusa County Farm Bureau. Master Gardener volunteers extend horticultural information and offer educational programs and garden-related demonstrations in Colusa County.

The Master Gardener program began with a seed of an idea planted by Melodie Johnson of the Colusa County Farm Bureau. Melodie and Mike Murray, UCCE County Director transplanted that idea into a program. As the seedling grew, Melodie and Gerry Hernandez, also of the UC Cooperative Extension were made co-coordinators. The inaugural class of 15 Master Gardeners began training in January 2009 with 17 weeks of training. After graduation in May the Master Gardeners have been working in the local community at the Colusa County Fair, Arbuckle Farmers Market, Colusa Farmers Market and established office hours at the Farm Bureau and Cooperative Extension Offices. Please come and visit us at either location.
