

REMINDER!

South Sacramento Valley Processing Tomato Production Meeting

Colusa, Sacramento, Solano, Sutter, & Yolo Counties

Tuesday, January 14th, 2025

8:00 am to 12:00 noon

DPR credits approved: 3.5 hr (0.5 hr Laws & Regs; 3 hr Other)

CCA credits approved: 2.5 hr (IPM)

Woodland Community & Senior Center (Map directions)

2001 East Street

Woodland, CA 95776

AGENDA

- 7:45 Doors open, coffee and refreshments available
- 8:00 Welcome and acknowledge sponsors (Patricia Lazicki, UCCE Yolo, Solano & Sacramento counties)
- 8:10 Broomrape Board update (Representative from the CDFA Broomrape Control Board)
- 8:20 Refining chemigated rimsulfuron treatments for branched broomrape management (Matt Fatino and Brad Hanson, UC Davis)
- 8:40 Soilborne diseases and pests in the south Sacramento Valley: Trends and approaches to integrated management (Cassandra Swett, Myles Collinson, Justine Beaulieu. UC Davis; Brenna Aegerter, UCCE San Joaquin county; Patricia Lazicki)
- 9:45 Yolo County Regulatory update (Molly Matthews, Yolo County Ag Commissioner's Office)
- 10:00 - 10:20----Break----
- 10:20 2024 season variety update (TS&L)
- 10:40 Diagnosing herbicide symptoms (John Roncoroni, UCCE Weed Science Advisor Emeritus)
- 11:00 Controlling in-row weeds with post-plant pre-emergent herbicides in processing tomatoes (Scott Stoddard, UCCE Merced & Madera counties)
- 11:20 Stinkbug damage in tomato: Life cycle, conditions favoring population development and management options (Tom Turini, UCCE Fresno county)
- 11:40 Virus disease situation for processing tomatoes in 2024 and an unexpected twist in the spotted wilt story (Bob Gilbertson, UC Davis)

Following the final presentation, anyone interested is invited to stay for a catered lunch and discussion on industry responses to branched broomrape. Please RSVP if you plan to stay for this portion.

Come network with colleagues and hear research and regulatory updates from UC Cooperative Extension and industry experts

DPR credits sponsored by Yolo County Agricultural Commissioner's Office (Molly Matthews)

Hall rental and refreshments courtesy of:

Corteva AgriSciences (Paige Gill)

Syngenta (Derrick Hammonds)

Bayer (Bob Austin)

Valent USA (Kristina Madden)

FMC Ag Solutions (Tim Gallagher)

Gowan (James Brazzle)

BASF (Peter Bjorklund)

California Tomato Research Institute
(Zach Bagley)

Farm Credit West (Anna Fricke)

Morning Star Company (Renee Rianda)

HM Clause (Daryl Haarberg)

AgroLiquid (Armando Gutierrez)

Heinz Seed (Lynn Veenstra)

PCP (Aaron Smith)

Campbell's Soup (Craig Leathers)

AC Planta (Jong-Myong Kim)

This meeting is open to any interested party. Meeting facility is handicapped accessible.

Questions? Contact Patricia Lazicki (palazicki@ucanr.edu; 530-219-5198)

Broomrape Discussion & Lunch:
Please RSVP by Friday 1/10

Following the meeting, CTRI and CTGA are co-sponsoring a grower information, Q & A, and listening session on branched broomrape, including updates from the newly formed CDFA Broomrape Control Board. More details in the link below.

Catered lunch will be provided by Cracchiolo's to discussion participants. All are welcome to attend. However, please RSVP so we know how much lunch to provide.

Details & RSVP