

University of California

Agriculture and Natural Resources | Cooperative Extension

Beet Curly Top Virus Informational Meeting

Colusa, CA

November 18, 2021 ~ 9:30-11:30am

9:30: Welcome

Amber Vinchesi-Vahl, UCCE Vegetable Crops Advisor, UCCE Colusa, Sutter-Yuba

9:35: Curly Top Virus Control Program Overview

- CDFA's Curly Top Virus Control Program
- Beet Leafhopper Biology
- CTV Program Survey/Treatment Methods and Timelines
- Resources Available for Growers

Lauren Murphy, Senior Environmental Scientist Supervisor, California Department of Food and Agriculture

10:05: The unusual outbreak of curly top in 2021: What we know and what to expect in 2022

Bob Gilbertson, Distinguished Professor of Plant Pathology, Department of Plant Pathology, UC Davis

10:35: Q & A Session

The meeting will take place at the UCCE Colusa office, 100 Sunrise Blvd, Colusa, CA. Space is limited, so register early if possible. The event is FREE. To register, visit:

<https://forms.gle/7NLJDF8S7zCyjvJn8>.

QR code:

To access the registration link via the QR code, open the camera on your phone and hold over the QR code. The registration link should appear and you can click on that to register. If you have any questions or issues, please email acvinchesi@ucanr.edu or call the UCCE Colusa office at 530-458-0570.